

▶ iMPACT ARCHITECTS

Media Impact Model

Lindsay Green-Barber, PhD

Impact?

What are we even talking about when we say IMPACT?

Impact is a change in the status quo resulting from a direct intervention, be it a text article, a documentary film, or a live event.

- Institutional change
- Network change
- Individual change
- Media amplification

Impact Architects Media Impact Model

How to measure IMPACT

Methods for measuring IMPACT

- Case study
- Network analysis
- Content analysis
- Surveys
- Quantitative, statistical analysis
  - Google Analytics

Outcome Indicators

		Google Analytics (Partner &/or FP)		Facebook Insights				Twitter Analytics		YouTube Analytics			Qualitative Data		Public Records		Partners	News clipping service
		Unique page views	Time on page	Avg. session duration	Facebook fans	Facebook comments	Facebook shares	Facebook video views	Twitter followers	Twitter engagement rate	Subscribers	Views	Watch time	Survey results	Audience feedback	Citations/mentions by orgs.	Public records	Public statements	Print circulation	Media mentions	Localization in media	Content diffusion in media
Audience	Awareness
	Knowledge
	Action
Network	New/strengthened network
	Contribute to org. work
Institutional/ Structural	Policy change
	Institutional change
Discourse	Amplification of message

Why measure IMPACT?

From Impact to Strategy: Impact Architects Media Impact Process Model

How to get started?

1. Set goals
2. Define outcomes clearly
3. Be creative + intentional
4. Select appropriate methods
5. Tools come last